A BRILLIANT RESULT

WHEN IT COMES TO REFINISHING, OCTORAL STANDS OUT FROM THE CROWD

A world of coating solutions in a single innovative and complete system: that is what Octoral offers. Octoral provides you all products you need for a complete application. From bare metal to a brilliant finishing touch with clear coats - all you need is Octoral! Discover how you can improve your results... with Octoral!

Wow! That's what car owners say when you've used Octoral to refinish their car. Your expertise in combination with the complete Octoral system guarantees a beautiful end result. With an optimum yield and high productivity to boot.

SURPRISINGLY COMPLETE

The Octoral programme is all about mixing colour systems. These are supplemented with cleaners, putties, primes, surfacers, additives, hardeners, thinners, clear coats and special effect toners. But Octoral offers more than just products; it also guarantees a partnership with added value. A team of colour and application specialists is ready to share their advice. A wide range of training programmes at our Business & Technical Centres help us to raise our partners' level of knowledge.

OCTORAL IS 100%
FULL COLOUR

THE PERFECT COLOUR MATCH,
EVERY TIME!

A COMPLETE SYSTEM

Octoral is a complete system, allowing you to perform virtually all applications to complete perfection. Mixing colour systems, supplementary products, colour information... all customised so that you can work in a quicker and more efficient way. Every drop of Octoral contains an enormous amount of colour knowledge; knowledge that we're happy to share with you, every day! No other brand of car refinishers can offer you so much colour knowledge.

PERFECT MATCH

Octoral is all about colour. Thanks to our global colour information system, we can deliver nearly all formulas for OEM colours. And with the digital colour retrieval system COINS, the Valspar Spectrophotometer, Valspar Color Maps and the Valspar Color Box that has nearly 10,000 colour samples, you have everything you need to find the perfect match for the most complex colours.

ACHIEVING MORE TOGETHER

Octoral users are never alone. To enhance what your employees already know, we deliver training courses in-house or at one of our Business & Technical Centres. What's more, we improve their technical skills so that your productivity increases too. Immediately. Of course, you can always call on the assistance of one of our representatives in your region. With our advice and your expertise combined, we can achieve even more!
